

FROM ARMSTRONG

Mrs. F. M. Kizer was in Durant Monday attending to business.

Earl Cumber of near Dallas, nephew of Mrs. F. Wilson, is visiting in Armstrong this week.

W. F. Little and son James of Kiowa, also the former's daughter, Mrs. Edna Burleson of Coalgate, have been visiting Jack and Henry Furr.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Warrs of Durant spent Sunday in Armstrong visiting relatives.

Miss Edith Pryor of Durant, who is one of the teachers in the Pleasant Hill district, east of Armstrong, visited at the homes of J. W. Garrett and Fred Galloway Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Morehead and children motored on business to Hugo Friday and returned Sunday afternoon.

N. P. Scott of the Texas Oil and Pipe Line Company of Oklahoma was in Durant Monday shopping.

Monday being All Fools' Day, the Armstrong school was greeted with an excellent surprise by the principal, Miss E. Webb Davis and assistant, Miss Stark, and students of the Midway district school paying us a visit. A game of baseball was participated in by the students of both schools and was highly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson were visited Friday and Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Mitchell and children of Wynnewood. Mrs. Mitchell is a sister of Mr. Dickerson.

FROM BOKCHITO

Lee Warren left Monday morning for Baxter Springs, Kansas, to attend to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Horn of Albany came over and spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. McGahey.

J. H. Lee, who moved from here about a year ago to Bennington, was here Saturday visiting friends.

Mrs. L. H. Lutes and little son, David, returned Saturday morning from Durant, where they visited relatives for a week.

Mrs. W. W. Wood, from Roff, Oklahoma, is here visiting relatives and friends. She will be joined by her husband.

John Hampton left Monday for Cove, Ark., on a business trip. He will be absent several days.

The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel died Thursday morning at the family home east of town, in the Indian neighborhood. He was killed in the head by a bullet the skull being broken over the forehead. The family has the sympathy of many friends.

Heron, who left Saturday morning for Camp Travis, where he will enter some branch of the war work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grubbs, of Bokchito, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wade Collins, motored up Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Miss Ora Hannon, teacher in the Bokchito school, was absent from school Monday on account of a sore throat.

Mrs. Puckett, of Celeste, Texas, came in Saturday evening for a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Norman, and family.

Tom King, of Ada, was here the other day looking after his interests in this neighborhood.

C. M. French has returned from Sherman, where he carried his little son for an operation at the sanitarium. He said the little fellow stood it fine, and he thought the boy was getting along very well when he left. It is the hope of his many friends that he may recover permanently.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Seely Griffin died Friday morning. The bereaved parents are extended the sympathies of many friends.

Jim Moore and family visited his father at Atoka Sunday. He reports his father as well and doing fine. This was good news to his many old friends in Bokchito.

R. J. Miller died Sunday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. S. Allen, of measles. Deceased was 48 years of age, and was a good and religious citizen. He was well liked and honored by a large number of friends, who mourn at their loss and that of the community. He was a kind and affectionate father, ever particular for well doing. He was resigned to the will of the Father, willing to go and meet dear ones who had preceded him. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. W. North, and interment was had Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Bokchito cemetery. The remains were followed to their last resting place by a number of sympathizing friends and mourning relatives. Surviving him are two sons and a daughter, S. H. and Julton, and Mrs. S. S. Allen.

Little Lucille Norman, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Norman, is very sick this week with the measles.

John White, a splendid and patriotic young man from the Banty neighborhood, left Tuesday for the Navy recruiting station at Denison. He was not of the draft age, having but recently become 21.

FROM BENNINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Brodmore of Clarita visited Mrs. W. J. R. Lloyd, grandmother of the latter. Mrs. Brodmore was married about a week ago. While here they in company with Miss Hattie Lloyd, Frances Hall and Lucille Hall, motored to old Goodland to see Rev. J. P. Gibbons, who is very ill.

Miss Anita Lloyd, who teaches in the Goodland school, accompanied them to Bennington for a short stay with home folks.

The union Easter services held at the school auditorium was quite a success. About 150 children, composed of the four Sunday Schools, were in attendance. Rev. Firebaugh preached a very forceful sermon.

Mrs. R. K. McIntosh, who is teaching at Jackson, was in Saturday. Mr. McIntosh came down to spend the week end with his wife and little Robert.

Mrs. H. M. Lindsay and Miss Pearl Pounds left Tuesday for Dallas to be gone for several days to get Miss Pounds an artificial limb. The people of Bennington made up the money for which Miss Pounds is very grateful.

Mrs. Eugene, mother of Mrs. Ryd, left Saturday for Dallas to visit her son, Harry. While away she will visit relatives at Houston.

Some of the teachers and pupils motored themselves away April 1 to play a trick on the superintendent. They strolled over the meadows and took pictures for more than three hours, then returned to hear what the wiser heads had to say.

Lieut. Ceph Shoemaker of Camp Pike is shaking hands with his many friends here.

The fine rain of Saturday has put things to growing.

Mr. Gregory of Durant, has moved his family down and will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Fisher.

J. W. Dawson was a Durant visitor Tuesday.

FROM CALERA

Mrs. Will Holland of McAlester is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Linton of this place are visiting relatives and friends in Sherman and Ector, Texas, this week. They will be away for several weeks.

J. O. Tillman, who has been working in Durant at the post office, left Monday for points in Mexico. He will meet his wife and little son at Brown, Texas. They are expecting to make their home in Mexico.

Arthur McVeigh and Paul Moore left Friday night for San Antonio.

Harve Goza was a business visitor to Durant Saturday.

The Baptist meeting which Rev. Butler of Durant has been conducting, closed Monday night.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turley is real sick this week with pneumonia.

Misses Marian and Francelle Colbert of the Presbyterian College at Durant, spent Easter at home with their grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Hobson.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wood has been real sick the past week.

Saturday will be Trades Day in Calera; also we are going to have a War Savings Stamp sale on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Waybaum spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duncan Sunday.

Miss Maydine Julian of the Barwick community spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. Larson, who live a few miles east of Calera.

C. M. Wood was a business visitor to Oklahoma City last week.

FROM HENDRIX

The following program was rendered at the school house Tuesday evening, March 26:

Song by school children, "Is There Any Better Country Than the U. S. A.?" This was followed by a most interesting and beautiful patriotic speech by Prof. A. Linseheid of the Durant Normal, after which the audience stood while the children sang the "Star Spangled Banner." Prof. Miller of Durant and Mr. Linseheid then sold War Savings and Thrift Stamps to the amount of $85.

D. C. Combest and Joe Farris of Denton were here Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie Webb of Durant spent the past week at the home of her son, W. H. Webb, whose little daughter was quite ill with pneumonia, but is much improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kemp, and Esther Whittemore, of Kemp, were guests of Mrs. Lillie McLaughlin on Wednesday evening.

Misses Ethel Short and Helen Chorn spent the Easter holiday with their parents.

Lucille Webb, who is home for the Easter holidays, is ill with mumps.

Mrs. Ragland, of New Heddington, who was formerly Miss Maxey Hart of Durant, was a guest of Mrs. McLaughlin Saturday afternoon while en route to Kemp to visit friends.

Mrs. Reppert, whose home is in Iowa, is here for an extended visit with her son, P. L. Reppert, and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Burrows of Denton were here Sunday afternoon.

Miss Stella Ellis, who has been in the Denton city hospital the past week, returned home Friday much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Johnson were in the school community last week, and while there purchased a cow from W. E. Jones.

W. W. Turner and Jason Haddock of Kemp were here Saturday.

Bob Elrod, of Kemp, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. S. W. Johnson went to Denton Friday.

FROM KEMP

Mrs. Rachel Whittemore and children have been to Yarnaby visiting her brother-in-law, who has been very sick with pneumonia.

Oscar Fowler of Durant was a visitor in Kemp Monday.

The Red Cross ladies sold ice cream Saturday and made a success of it. Besides the ice cream they had an egg shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson are the proud parents of a new baby boy at their home.

Mrs. W. H. Ragland, who has been visiting friends here, has returned home. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kemp, and Mr. and Mrs. Gray B. Dickerson.

W. W. Elrod made a business trip to Bell, Texas, last week.

Carley Darrell and wife have been down in Texas visiting with relatives for some days.

Luther Rankins and children have returned from a visit with his relatives down east.

Miss Daisy Pritchett, teacher at Yarnaby, was the guest of Esther Whittemore Sunday.

Joe Farnsworth has been very ill for quite a while.

Little Nell Ogden is pretty sick with measles.

Prof. John L. Sullivan went to Durant and Bennington Saturday on business.

D. R. Reynolds and daughter, Mrs. Lay Duckworth, were shopping in Denton Saturday.

FROM KENEFICK

Robert Dickey and Jimmie Nixon, of the Farmers State Bank, were in Durant Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Sue Haley left for Denton where she will spend a month with relatives and friends.

O. W. Smith was a Durant business caller Wednesday.

J. C. Robbins, who has been visiting J. L. Morris and family for the last two weeks, left Wednesday morning for his home in New Albany, Miss.

Miss Hattie Haley spent Saturday

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. It is a genuine medicine on each box. See SAVE MONEY Trade with Jenkins Dry Goods Co.

We were very fortunate this season in receiving most everything we've bought on early purchases. Our stocks are very complete in every department, and, as in seasons past, the NEW STORE Shows the New Things First.

Our Clothes for Men and Boys

Will Stand the Test—the most skeptical and economical buyer can be pleased here.

Men's Priestly Modeled Suits, of Palm Beach, Mohair, Tropical Worsteds, Light-Weight Tweeds, and Serges, priced at — $7.50, $9.85, $12.50, $15, $17.50, $19.50, $25

Wooly Boy Clothes For Boys

Of All the New Spring Shades, styled in Pinch Back, all around Belters, Single and Double Breast. Our prices are — $2.95 to $12.50

Select your materials from a very complete Dress Goods Stock, with Buttons and Trimmings to match every pattern. Our Prices Are Less. Take a look at our Blouses, Skirts, Dresses, Coats and Suits.

In Our Shoes

You buy guaranteed satisfaction, for style, fit, quality and service. Be fitted with your next pair here. Our prices on Shoes and Pumps for Ladies range from — $1.95 to $12.50

Children's Shoes prices range from — $1 to $4

Men's Shoes and Oxfords prices range from — $2.85 up to — $10. These are all leather Shoes.

Jenkins Dry Goods Co.
THE STORE FOR ALL THE PEOPLE
DURANT, OKLA.

THIRD AVENUE

THIRD AVENUE

FROM YARNABY

and Sunday out on Twelve Mile with Miss Minnabelle Colbert.

J. L. Morris was in Durant on business Wednesday.

Louise Glenn of Durant was in Kenefick Sunday.

Joe Siegel and wife spent Sunday in Caddo.

Rev. J. P. Mills was in town Monday on business.

John Rowland spent last week at Hartshorne with his daughter.

Howe Watkins spent Sunday with home folks at Caddo.

Hodge Fox of the Farmers State Bank left Monday for Shawnee, to spend a few days with home folks, after which he will visit some points in Kansas before returning to Kenefick.

Mrs. Jim Nixon was in Caddo Friday shopping.

Misses Hattie and Grace Haley were visiting in Durant Monday.

George Webster, who formerly lived in Durant, has moved his family to Kenefick. Mr. Webster is employed by the Bagwell & Dickey gin.

Miss Maud Miller spent Wednesday with Miss Inez Etchison.

The Red Cross ladies of Kenefick are doing good work now and seem to be very enthusiastic over the Red Cross work.

If Charley Chaplin can make his time worth as much to the U. S. Government in proportion to what he has made it worth to himself he will accomplish much.

FROM PLATTER

Mrs. Anderson entertained the little folks with an Easter hunt last Sunday afternoon.

Dick Owen is back again on a leave of absence visiting in parents and friends.

Sergeant Cas. Kaneubee spent Monday and Tuesday with Miss Sally Reeves.

Miss Garrett spent the week-end at home.

Mr. Stewart returned Saturday evening from Durant where he had been to get his car.

Ethel Williams spent Easter at home.

Mrs. Dunman was in Madill last Monday.

Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Meade's mother, returned to her home in Denton this week after having spent quite a few days with her.

Mrs. Logsdon has returned to Dallas for a few days, little Earl Rogers going with her.

Clinton Farmer spent Sunday here.

Sally Reeves is still ill with the measles but is some better now.

Charley Reeves will be at home on a fifteen-day furlough on the 13th of this month.

Hoover declares that he is powerless to protect the cattle industry, and it is quite likely that the packing plants will be put under the control of the Administration to subvert the interests of the livestock men.

Lunch Meats! Ready Cooked

- Boiled Ham, sliced - 50c
- Veal Loaf, " - 25c
- Minced Ham, " - 25c

Have you made any purchases in our Fresh Meat Department? Our Meats are Government Inspected, and are purchased with a view of giving our customers a little better meats at the price of the inferior kind.

BUTTER MILK

Three times each week. Give us your order in advance to insure delivery.

White House Grocery

"Good Things to Eat"

Phone 83 Phone 83

We Sell War-Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps.

BUNGALOW THEATRE

—All Next Week—

Bobby Jarvis

—and his—

Musical Comedy Co.

LIBERTY THEATRE

MONDAY — The "Militaire Follies," By Soldiers from Kelly Field, Texas. Big Company and Orchestra.

TUESDAY — "The Last Raid of the Zeppelins."

WEDNESDAY — Evelyn Nesbitt and her son, Harry Thaw, in "Redemption."